

Media Specialist Rollout Guide

Build a culture of reading with Beanstack

Beanstack motivates your students to spend more time reading. Here are just a few ways you can use Beanstack to grow your schools' culture of reading:

Build routine

Make logging reading part of your students' library routine. Use morning announcements and Beanstack posters to remind everyone to log their reading.

Tap into that competitive spirit

Students love trying to out-read their teachers or other classrooms and grades. Use our new insights leaderboard to make running competitions a snap.

Rally your community

Create a school goal or a school-wide Principal's Picks challenge. Show your teachers how to use Beanstack for classroom reading routines, and get your administration and PTO involved.

Get to know Beanstack

- Explore Beanstack
  - Visit the admin dashboard home screen to view recent reading statistics for the most active students, classes, and staff at your school.
  - Check out Insights for an at-a-glance view of reading data. Get more granular with Reports—and even schedule regular email delivery of your favorites.
  - Find reading data for individual students in the Classes and Readers section.
  - Check out Challenges to browse our challenge templates and ebook store, create your own challenges, and edit or remove any challenges automatically added to your site.
- Log your own reading (try the mobile app)!
- Attend a training session.

Get teachers up to speed

- Train your teachers using our customizable teacher training slide deck.
- Short on time? Share the Beanstack explainer video at your next faculty meeting.
- Share the Teacher Quick Start Guide (in your launch kit) and the teacher experience video.

Introduce students to Beanstack

- Demonstrate using Beanstack and share the student experience video.
- Send the school flyer and Beanstack 101 guide (in your launch kit) home with your students.
- Keep at it! Remind students to log their reading and celebrate their successes.

WOW!